First Grande Prairie Troop Formed At Old Legion Hall

Leaders Appointed But Patrols Not Yet Named—Court of Honor Also Appointed

The 1st Grande Prairie Troop of Boy Scouts held their first meeting in the old Legion Hall. This hall has been kindly donated for Scout purposes by the Canadian Legion and it is the desire of the Scoutmaster of the troop to express appreciation and thanks to the Canadian Legion, also the group committee for their efforts in making possible a new troop in Grande Prairie.

Twenty-eight boys attended the first meeting, which got under way pretty well on time. A number of names were played while the Scoutmaster lined up the evening's program.

Elmer Canning, Assistant Scoutmaster, very ably handled the boys during the game period.

While the games were in progress the Scoutmaster appointed the following boys as Patrol Leaders: Francis Tanner, Patrol Leader of No. 1 Patrol; Ralph Leckie forming Patrol No. 2 and the Scoutmaster, charge of Patrol No. 3. Names of the patrols were not decided as yet, but they will possibly be named in the future.

After the forming of the patrols the Scoutmaster gave a short talk on the use of tobacco and let it be known that the smoker would not be available for scouting. Patrol corners were assigned to each patrol and for a short time each patrol took to their corners.

Plane Brings Novel Cargo Out of The Far North

A fish, a pup and a wild duck were part of a cargo that Pilots Ted North and Alex Dene took out of the North on Tuesday.

The duck, a large greenhead Mallard which was left behind on the flight south, was taken to the airman's cabin on Watson Lake. Being quite tame, it was picked up and taken to the farm of "Red" Powell on Charlie Lake, near Fort St. John, where it is now intimately associated with a flock of tame ducks.

The fish (whitefish) was presented to Mayor Tooley, who is the U.A.T. agent at Grande Prairie. The fish, which was considered the very finest, furnished the centre of a little banquet the Mayor gave to some friends.

The pup, a cross between a police dog and a husky, was being shipped to Mrs. Grant McConachie, wife of the president of the company. The little fellow took to life in Grande Prairie like a duck to water. In fact it was just the most friendly little thing one could imagine.

G.P. Ladies Curling Club Are Away To A Good Start

At a well-attended meeting held in the Town Hall on December 1, the Grande Prairie Ladies Curling Club got away to a good start when plans were worked out for the coming season. The following is the personnel of the seven rinks formed. The skip is named first, then the third, second and lead.

Charlie Stojan in Charge Pathfinder Car Arrives Home

Looking none the worse for their experience, Charlie Stojan, in charge of the pathfinder car through Montanan Pass, and Bruce Albright, who accompanied him, arrived home by car from Edmonton on Friday of last week. In piloting the car Charlie was assisted by his brother Jerry, who returned home some time ago.

Interviewed by The Tribune reporter, Charlie summed up the reason why the car did not reach Hanzard by saying, "It was the time of year when the roads were bad and we were just twenty-four hours too late."

Charlie explained that when they got to the McGregor River Ole Hansen was waiting with the boat to take the car down the river. As some of the men were sick and grub was short, Francis Murphy, in charge of the crew, decided to send the men out first. Charlie and a man by the name of Yost, of Alex Lake, stayed with the car.

Hansen immediately returned upstream for the car and Stojan and Yost. Unfortunately the river froze up when the boat had arrived about twenty miles from where the car was. As winter had set in so early, the two decided to walk and met Hansen, who was on his way to where the car was stuck.

Due to bad weather, the three stayed in the cabin for a week. From this point the three proceeded on snowshoes to Hanzard. Yost, who couldn't travel as fast as the other two, was given all the grub with the result that Hansen and Stojan had to go without food for hours. The going was very heavy but they finally reached Hanzard, where Hansen had his home.

Yost arrived a day later. "I was picked up by a speeder at Hanzard and got off at Alex Lake," said Charlie, who went on to say, "From there I took a train to Prince George."

Charlie assured The Tribune reporter that there would be no difficulty in getting the car out in the spring. It had stood the severe test well.

Charlie, who was not a little disappointed in not getting the car through Hanzard, expressed his feelings in this way: "It was a case of so near and yet so far!"

Alta. Wheat Pool Steadily Improving Financial Position

Says Delegate Uri Powell, Who Returned From Convention On Friday—Convention Of Opinion That Wheat Pool Is Improving, Continue—Terminal At Vancouver Paid For.

Uri Powell, a delegate to the Alberta Wheat Pool convention, held at Calgary, returned home on Friday, and summed up the convention as follows:

While the convention held by the delegates of the Alberta Wheat Pool was appreciative of the fact that the net operating earnings of the elevator system totalled $335,520.42 during the 1937-38 crop year, greater satisfaction was expressed over the success the three Wheat Pools of western Canada achieved in persuading the federal government to operate a Wheat Board this year.

The delegates were of the unanimous opinion that the Wheat Board should be continued in operation, not only to handle all the wheat delivered but likewise to control the prices of which have been pitifully low this year.

The Alberta Wheat Pool is steadily getting itself into an excellent financial position. Earnings over the past two years have been satisfactory as in the years previous thereto, due principally to the small crops in Alberta.

The delegates spent seven days in going into Pool affairs. They say that the management of the Pool is being improved and that the Pool is getting itself into an excellent financial position.

The report on the activities up to the present was presented. Committees were formed for carrying on the work and arrangements made for putting up hampers and for the purchase of and distribution of clothing.

It was revealed during the meeting that there is greater need for clothing now than a year ago. The organization makes a special appeal for second-hand clothing.

The placing of the show samples followed by the members of the club. Club Leader Harry Cameron and W. S. Scarth, District Agriculturist, discussed winter meetings with members and decided on January 16 as a date for the first meeting. Four members were appointed to discuss two topics—soil drifting and gray water.

Mr. Milligan had an excellent set of lantern slides, and the members followed his interesting lecture with close attention.

Arnold Christie, District Superintendent of the United Grain Growers, and Mr. Huggins, local agent of the company, who sponsor Junior Out Clubs, were in attendance and expressed appreciation of the general interest in the Wanham district.

Curling Postponed At G.P. Owing To Mild Weather

Large Turnout At Meeting Held In The Wapiti Rink Monday Night—Enough Players To Make Up Twenty Rinks But Ice Too Thin To Skips—W. Russ And Roy Easterbrook Were Backed—Cementmaker Frank Guthrie Adds Artistic Touch To Ice

The "roarin' game" at Grande Prairie was set in motion Monday night when many devotees of the game assembled at the Wapiti Rink. Owing to the soft weather the game was postponed until the weather improved.

An artistic touch has been added to the ice by Ice Maker Frank Guthrie, who has been enlisted to make up twenty rinks. Several of the rinks, he said, had been broken up and skis distributed.

In the absence of curling a meeting was held. President N. Swallow, who had been elected to the post, had been entered, a scarcity of skis being the cause. He stated that there were enough skis to make up twenty rinks, but the skis had been broken up and skis distributed.

The National Field, police and Canadian Utilities rinks will go through the season as at present come before curling.

The draw for the two sets of rinks was pulled off by W. Russ, holding the rinks. The rinks were held at the Wapiti Rink, Monday, Dec. 12, the Easternbrook, holding No. 12, the National Field, holding No. 13.

The committee decided to stage a knockout competition to start the season and after all rinks are staged the square draw will be made up.

Lively Debate Is Staged At Meeting Of C.C.F. Tuesday

The meeting of the local branch of the C.C.F. held at the Grande Prairie Hotel Tuesday night, called to discuss the platform and principles of the party. The occasion for a lively and interesting debate.

Mr. Macklin, in speaking to the platform, observed that the time when the "big shots" told the people that prosperity was just around the corner and it is still there, it was in the past brought nations out of depression because they could loan out the money.

The C.C.F. said Mr. Macklin, has an educational function to perform. He thought that the party got into power or not as long as the organization can spread its principles.

C. O. Paul gave a brief report on the provincial convention. C. O. Paul gave it as his opinion that the C.C.F. should go into provincial politics. He thought that (Continued on Page Eight)

J. M. MCKAY WRITES INTERESTING LETTER FROM PENTICTON, B.C.

George Duncan of The Tribune staff received the following interesting letter from Jack McKay, former editor of the Penticton Herald, now at Penticton, B.C.: Dear Geo.—

Just the line to mail you one year's subscription to The Tribune as I have not received an issue since November 10. I would like to look at my name label to see the expiry date, but take for granted that non-payment of the reason for not receiving it. Please send the back issues and if the enclosure does not put me in good standing let me hear from you. I hand it around to two other north country families living here, so it is well read.

I was very pleased to see the nice card turned in by Lutz Cobb a few weeks ago and don't mind admitting I used to think it would never be done, namely, a 35 on Richmond. Old Sandy must have filled a lot of holes and cut off a few humps around these greens, though I say Larry has developed into some sort of super-gopher, another John Montague or maybe they should be discriminated against by these two firms, who are evidently endeavoring to protect the legitimate customers of the smaller towns.

This is no criticism against the merchants of Grande Prairie, as they are all good fellows, but to get all the business they can, more power to them if they can do it.

SCENIC HEIGHTS

BIG HORN AND MEADOWVILLE PUPILS GO TO G. P. AND SEE FREE SHOW

SCENIC HEIGHTS, Dec. 5.—The pupils of Meadowville and Big Horn combined to hire transportation for themselves to Grande Prairie on Saturday, December 3, to take advantage of the free treats and picture show which were provided by the merchants of Grande Prairie.

Following the free show, the pupils of Meadowville and Big Horn where they sang and spoke over the air to their friends. Irvin Harder of Meadowville brought a trophy upon himself and school when he won the prize for soloists. This was given by the merchants of G.P. The prize for school choruses was also won by Meadowville, this also was a "free" according to G.P. C.F.P.

Big Horn scholars were good in their songs, "Oh, Oh! Big Horn." They also gave their school yell over the air, which gave them a fine atmosphere. Although winning no prizes, the scholars of Big Horn had a real good time and were very ample reason to remember their visit to Grande Prairie for a long time.

They have all caused me to feel grateful to the merchants of Grande Prairie, who made the treats possible, and also to Mr. E. Donahue for allowing them a free show.

It was a regrettable that sickness prevented many of the scholars from attending this enjoyable outing.

The subject of the essay was "Tides and the Little Fish." This is what I wrote: "There are all kinds of tides. THE SNAPSHOT GUILD

BRING IN THE CLOUDS

Without the clouds this would have been a dull picture. A K-2 filter over the lens brought them in. Exposure 1/25 second at f.8.

Go to any art gallery and examine the landscape pictures. Find one which the artist has failed to put clouds in the sky. If you succeed you will have encountered a rarity in the world of art.

The fact is that even though a painter may succeed in capturing the true expression blue he seldom omits to put in a cloud or two, white, dark or tinted, despite the fact that a cloudless, blue sky is not an unusual phenomenon and hence true to nature. The painter appreciates that clouds in their many beautiful forms, "pavilions of the sun," as a poet once called them, are artistic contributions to any outdoor scene. Too, the artist who works in black and white rarely fails to put clouds in his sky because an expanse of plain white space is uninteresting.

Why do we not more often see clouds in amateur photographs? Years ago the qualities of photographic materials were such that it was very difficult to photograph clouds because there was no film sensitized that it would register clouds distinctly. Today films are available which to a greater or lesser degree will do so, but if the little gadget known as a filter is used over the lens, clouds may be brought into the picture in their full form and beauty.

Nevertheless, many amateurs continue to take cloudless landscapes, their skies being represented only by a wash of white or gray, or faint

BEAVER LODGE

To Hold Another Short Course Of Agricultural

BEAVER LODGE, Dec. 6.—Under the terms of the Dominion-Provincial Youth Training program there will be a Short Course of Agricultural instruction in Beaver Lodge from January 3 to 19, inclusive.

A successful school was held at this point last year, with the enrollment expected to almost double this year. The course is extended to three weeks and is the only one in the North of three-weeks duration. Extra staff and skilled instructors have been recruited from throughout the province to take care of the advanced course for second year students.

The course is free and is open to all young men and women between the ages of 18 and 30. For young men it includes instruction in practical agriculture, soils, field crops, live stock, farm mechanics, poultry, dairying, horticulture, recreation and community organization. The course includes lectures and practical subjects as foods, nutrition, health, clothing, sewing, practical handicrafts, poultry, horticulture, recreation and community leadership.

The use of the actual subject as a guide. Full use will be made of every facility available in the non-vocational nature, dealing with such subjects as literature, arts and social problems.

The only charge for the course will be to those who use the community dining hall. It was found last year to amount to 50 cents a day or $10 for the duration of this year's course. This is to be supplied in either cash or produce, or half of each. Each student must bring their own table dishes and utensils and a list of the foodstuffs that may be brought is as follows: Vegetables, bread, fruit, cakes, butter, eggs, milk, flour, chickens, etc. The ladies will be billeted and roomed and the boys will be housed in a dormitory. Each student is asked to bring their own crochets, needles, pillow, and cot if possible. Toilet articles such as wash basin, soap, towels and mirror will be necessary.

The young ladies are asked to bring their own needles, thread, thimble, tape measure or ruler, yarn, scissors, pattern goods for sewing, crochets, hook, pencil and notebook. Men are asked to bring their own slacks or overalls, a clean gunny sack and old wooden goods for rug-making. Men are asked to bring their own tools, pocket knife and a small kit of wood-working tools—old ones will do. The idea is to have the students sharpen their own tools.

All students bring musical instruments, skates, running shoes or moccasins, as the optional part of the program will be especially delightful. The school will be concluded with a banquet and dance.

Last year's students are organized and have representatives all through the district, from whom you can obtain application forms and any additional information required. Send in the applications as soon as possible so that the committees will be able to make arrangements to accommodate all students. Mail forms to either Walter Bond or Bert Sumner, Beaver Lodge.

The following is a list of the representatives in the various districts: Huxton—Madison Flint, Victor Morris, Fred Harrop.
Wembley—Lloyd Rigby, Alice Smith.
Albright—R. Sexton, Thelma Cook.
Beaver Lodge—Bert Sumner, Walter Bond.

KLONDIKE TRAIL

HOLD PIE SOCIAL IN AID OF CHRISTMAS TREE FUNDS

KLONDIKE TRAIL, Dec. 5.—On Wednesday of last week the Klondike Trail school held a pie social in aid of the Christmas tree funds. At about midnight the pies were auctioned by Mr. Aldred, assisted by Mr. Bullas. Many of these pies had fancy decorations, thus boosting the pie. Lunch was also served by some of the ladies. After supper the crowd was favored with two solos by Miss L. Gittel and duet by Marion Gubb and Len Kaufman.

After this a scarf for the ladies and a shawl for the gentlemen were raffled. The lucky winners were Mrs. L. H. Stokke and Mr. Wallace Edgar. The tickets for these were sold by three of the school children. The music was excellent and the floor was not too hot for everyone had a good time.

Mr. Gust Gittel, who is at present busy constructing a house near Halcourt, was unable to be here as auctioneer of the pie sale.

Strong Liquid Position Shown At Annual Meeting Of Imperial Bank

An all-time high in deposits in the Imperial Bank of Canada, totalling $141,533,278 on October 31, 1938, an increase of $9,385,188 for the year, was shown by the annual statement presented at the meeting of shareholders on Wednesday, November 23. Cash and immediate available assets as compared with 2015 per cent the previous year.

While the early promise of business improvement had not been fulfilled, Canada had suffered no major setbacks and the general position was better than a year ago, said the President, Mr. A. E. Phillips, in his address. Volume of world trade had fallen sharply, and this, with a decline of wholesale prices, had hit the exporting countries. Canada's wheat crop had been the largest since 1932, but prices had been unsatisfactory. Manufacturing had recently shown recovery, but mining had made the most recovery of all. Industrial employment was showing improvement. While figures revealed a healthy condition in Canadian banking, it had been a difficult year for earnings, but the annual profit of $1,415,332,780 was a record.

The strong liquid position, showed a steady growth and practically undiminished earnings and in first-class position to handle its full share of business.

The statement presented by the general manager, Mr. H. T. Jafray, showed a rise in deposits from $132,148,088 to $141,533,278. Total liabilities to the public were $150,514,062 as compared with $142,616,132 a year ago. Cash holdings rose by $3,581,355 to $26,901,860. Total holdings of Dominion, provincial and municipal securities were $34,627,101, an increase of only $87,371. Call loans dropped from $1,169,163 to $554,381. Loans to provincial governments and to cities, towns and municipalities and school districts increased moderately, being largely for public purposes with Dominion guarantees. Current loans increased by 56 per cent to $1,306,277.

The steadily increasing somewhat better wheat crop. Under all circumstances, it was gratifying, said Mr. Jafray, to report profits of $961,342.75, only $6,634 less than a year ago.

WESTERN WOMEN WIN MANY FIRST PRIZES

The outstanding feature of the results in the Dominion-wide Quaker Flour contest is the surprisingly high number of western Canadian women who are succeeding in winning first prizes. During the first three weeks of the contest, 400 cash prizes of $5 each were awarded. The names and addresses of the winners are as follows:

Miss Ida Allenbrand, Handel, Sask.
Mrs. M. J. Allenbrand, Handel, Sask.
Mrs. Mabel G. Petty, Paynton, Sask.

Here and There "On the Air"

Edited by Arthur Jackson

Last Sunday afternoon, while going over the broadcast band, fishing for a worthwhile program but dodging blunders, Charlie McCarthy, I heard local voices and names, among them that of Father McGuire. A hurried twist of the dial showed CFCP still in its appointed place, but it didn't slip its moorings and it still slipped over the air waves. Switching over to and dialing 2.50 to 4 megacycles (the amateur 80-metre band) revealed that one of Grande Prairie's enterprising amateur stations was "keeping a schedule" with Williams Lake. Reception was good both ways and the participants, including Father Conway at Williams Lake, were getting a big "kick" from "doing their stuff." Being able to talk back to a broadcasting station has good points. If radio sets also included a transmitter, wouldn't it be grand to tell an announcer what we thought of him or his program at the very moment we felt like being heard?

This Grande Prairie-Williams Lake broadcast is an example of what the amateurs are capable of. Charlie handled the load splendidly, even though it spilled some of it on the broadcast band. He didn't hurt it and did no harm. But if it had hit blackhead Charlie McCarthy what a howl there would be!

I am busy knitting Christmas presents this week, and I read some place about many men crocheting—CJCA Publicity Release #11 the first of this column. Like CFCP, he carries a big amount of advertising toll on the entertainment supplied, but in spots he's good. He sez:

Preface to Christmas!
Across the world nations hear jingle bells fading in heralds of Christmas that swell to a thrilling crescendo as Yuletide draws near. It seems to us that the joy and sacredness of a great festival is enhanced, the joy of the year's happiest season is increased when radio celebrates Christmas.

From a million loudspeakers sweet-voiced altar boys sing "Ora Pro Nobis" — deep-toned organs play "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing." Scenes that thrilled the universe under the star of Bethlehem are re-enacted. Handel's Messiah rings and Christmas has a deeper meaning.

This power of the spoken word—this emotional quality of the old scenes re-enacted—was brought home to me when CJCA production chief, Norm Butterfield, invited me a pre-audition of some special shows being readied for broadcast during Christmas week.

Particularly powerful as straightforward drama is one called "David Star of Bethlehem." Last year its broadcast had lasting effect, for several letters were received this fall from school teachers asking for script copies to use in reproducing the play at Christmas.

It is the story of a young married couple who, through an accident, lost their child. When the following

Christmas drew near it brought back to them a million unhappy memories and in order to get away from it they isolated themselves in a cabin in the bush. But they could not escape the spirit of Christmas; everywhere it crowded in on them; when the snow fell it seemed to them with memories of a thousand-laden tree with parcels that a little boy never lived to see.

So intensely tragic are the opening scenes that the happy climax comes like a bright shaft of sunshine, and suddenly the lump in your throat is gone and your eyes are sparkling through tears you couldn't quite keep back.

Do not mistake me when I say that "David Star of Bethlehem" carries with it a world of pathos. . . . It is not the tiresome maudlin sentimentality that you and I and most every listener despises. Here sentiment is so simple, so realistic, that no matter how dramatic the plot becomes, it never for an instant fringes on melodrama.

I want to hear it again—and I hope you, too, make a point of tuning it in when it is broadcast from CJCA, Thursday, December 22, 10 to 10:30 p.m.

Other excellent Christmas fare from Edmonton's thousand-watt WLLS will be broadcast on CJCA, Saturday, December 24, 6 to 6:30 p.m.; and Yuletide Echoes, Christmas morning at 9. Complete plans of the CBC's special Christmas events are not available, but we hope to have them the next week. One thing is certain—"radio" will be heard on Christmas to the North on Christmas Eve, and the various studios across Canada, including CJCA, will be making facilities to those of the public who have made arrangements with the Corporation to broadcast their Christmas to their friends down North.

Current wise-crack lifted from radio daily and banded about CJCA studios concerns a New Englander whose home was washed away by recent floods. The man was standing on the banks of the river when another wave came up, and he was floating in the stream, the second man said: "You don't know what I mean, do you?" he asked. "Did you see anything?" Any valuable belongings? No, we were so concerned about our own safety that we abandoned immediately. Just at this point the second man noticed a black derby floating on top of the water, moving about as if forming part of the scenery. "Tell me, what that derby floating around like that?" he asked. "That's my son, Sammy. I can't get him to stop moving the lawn."

Studio Sidelights
Lyall Holmes, CJCA sportscaster, does his trying best one hand these days—the other is in an eight-pound cast, allowing two broken bones to mend. Working as a cast of the irresistible flat meeting the unmovable chin? Dorothy Horrocks, (female) news anchor, is a complete department, is displaying more and more interest in the technical aspects of radio while Merle Dahlgren, control-room technician, has developed an ardent flair for continuity work. Jack Dawson, "Good Morning, Neighbors," speller, should ask his neighbors for a way to get rid of somnambulistic habits. Jack walked in the kitchen last night tripped on a chair and fell against a steam radiator. If such hints aren't forthcoming, he should do with a bruise remover for the swollen lip he sustained in the midnight tumble.

HUALLEN NEWS

CAN'T PLEASE EVERYBODY!
HUALLEN, Dec. 6.—The weather these days is simply de-lovely, but according to curling enthusiasts it is in the best of the season. We have an easy winter coming to us, anyhow.

SANTA CLAUS VISIT ASSURED
A very enjoyable dance was held in the Aspen Dale school-house last Friday night in aid of the Christmas entertainment fund. The music was kindly donated by the following: Messrs. Angus Clayton, accordion; John K. Wilson, piano; Len Kaufman, saxophone, and Johnny MacDougall, violin.

A lot of candy was raffled off. John Wilson, who took the name of John Hack out of the box of names, was the lucky drawer. The intermission and this also helped to rake in the odd dimes. We were very much pleased with the dance committee, M. Grubb and Henry Hennig, who functioned one night each.

We understand that with the night's takings and money previously collected the kiddies are assured of having a visit of their old friend, Santa Claus, at Aspen Dale school in the very near future.

TAKE IN THRIFT WEEK-END

Grande Prairie, during the past week-end, figuring on doing a little business, was the start of Thrift Week, don't you know. Now if there is anything that appeals to a curling enthusiast, it is the start of Thrift Week, don't you know. Now if there is anything that appeals to a curling enthusiast, it is the start of Thrift Week, don't you know. Now if there is anything that appeals to a curling enthusiast, it is the start of Thrift Week, don't you know.

RINK OFFICIALLY OPENED
The curling and skating rink was officially opened last Monday night. Skating was indulged in during the first part of the evening and the dance was held in the hall. A large crowd attended. The curling rocks that were raffled off were won by Miss Margaret Clow.

As soon as expenses incidental to the building of the curling and skating rink were paid, it will be operated as a community enterprise. So far the expenses have been financed by a public-spirited local individuals. The rates set for this season are as follows: Combination curling and skating ticket for guests, 55c; for ladies, 35c. Curling ticket only, guests, 45c; ladies, 25c.

Skating ticket only, adults, 25c; children, eighth grade and under, 15c. Special family rates on application.

Rev. N. J. Triun, United Church, Wembley, held services in the Lower Beaver Lodge school last Sunday, December 5.

A Monkmans' dance will be held Friday night this week and all are asked to turn out and help this worthwhile cause.

SEEN AND HEARD
Mike It. hatches a bright idea. Marjorie W. intently reads a letter.

Dave Mac with a bad case of jitters before the mike. Jim E. wishing caps had handles. A party returning from Klonkdy Trail dance so groggied in political controversy that they drove a mile out of their way.

Hans making a re-appearance on the dance floor, tripping the light fantastic as he used to in days of yore.

Albert S. doing the Big Apple with their car, with disastrous results.

GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY

HUALLEN, Dec. 5.—A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgerton on November 27 in honor of the birthdays of the Misses Reta Edgerton and Frances Wilsey. Many of their school friends came to celebrate the occasion. Games were played until 5 o'clock, when a delicious lunch was served.

GORDONDALE Mr. & Mrs. Menzies Celebrated Golden Wedding Nov. 28

GORDONDALE, Nov. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Menzies celebrated their golden wedding on November 28 by giving a grand dance at the residence of Mr. H. Kirkness. Invitations were mailed to their many friends at Spirit River, Happy Valley, Blueberry Mountain, Wharum, Bonanza, Bear Creek and Gordondale, and everyone that was able was in attendance, numbering approximately two hundred guests.

The evening's celebrations were opened by a speech by Mr. H. Kirkness, the oldest resident of the district, which was as follows:

"Friends, one and all: By the invitations you have received, without a doubt you are fully aware of the momentous occasion for which we are gathered here tonight. Others who are also present with whom the grand old couple are not intimate know that you are most sincerely welcome; that this was the most appropriate way they knew of showing their thankfulness to the One who governs all for 50 years of married bliss together. Though prosperity and poverty, trials and tribulations, always thinking of each other, ask would they have wilted it otherwise. Their faces are answer enough, just wreathed in smiles, contentment supreme. My house is at their disposal without reserve, and I know that the anticipation on your faces says you are about to enjoy yourself with them to the limit and will not be guilty of any dishonorable act tonight. So I will now step to one side. Thank you for your attention."

At the luncheon interval remarks were called for from Mr. A. Menzies, who was present at the wedding 50 years ago. He most ably responded with very complimentary felicitations.

Another who was present at both occasions, Mr. J. McMillan, said he suffered much from stage fright, which caused a most hearty laugh.

Others offered felicitations with witty remarks, such as: "This is the first time I have seen you since Joe Martel, Lyle Young, W. McAllister and C. Keyser, who was afraid of saying too much. This brought down the house. Joe Keyser contributed a couple of songs with a solo accompaniment."

The G.W.W. were unable to procure in time a bouquet befitting the occasion, which they regret, but their services rendered ministering to the inner man were home-made enough.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Radtke tendered them a lovely bouquet of golden flowers with card of felicitations attached.

The atmosphere was permeated with that old-time "bee" feeling, with which the old couple were so familiar in their younger days, and recalled dozens of eight to ten years ago in the same house.

The evening's celebrations were brought to a most happy ending at 3 a.m. with "They Are Jolly Old Fellows" by the assembly, all standing. The wish of everyone was may they continue to be together with us for many years to come, after which all wended their way homeward, tired but happy.

OTHER GORDONDALE NEWS

GORDONDALE, Nov. 29.—The weather has been grand the past few weeks. No more snow has fallen but the few inches we have thawed enough to make sleighing ideal, though no freighting has started to date apart from the truck, which is making regular trips. This truck is now hauling the Potrutz crop, having completed the Ed. Johnston contract.

The G.W.W. dance and pie social in aid of the Christmas tree fund on the 18th netted $13. Everyone enjoyed a good time.

Mrs. E. Johnston was assisting on the 27th at Mrs. D. Menzies', making preparations for the big event.

Mr. R. Williamson and family spent last week visiting Mrs. Williamson's folks at Valhalla, returning on the 25th accompanied by her sister, Pauline.

The children's Christmas concert and dance will be held at the usual place on December 16, and from reports it will be a most successful one to which everyone is most heartily invited.

From the reports of the pupils, things must be progressing favorably for school, any that I saw all showing improvement in the previous month.

Sunday school lessons are given Monday evenings, at the school-house by the same teachers.

Large game is quite plentiful in areas that were not burnt last summer, also some species of fur, but the season opening in 24 hours that species will get thinned down in a hurry.

Well Organized Destruction

Passing citizens of Dunville, Ontario, must have been mystified on a recent Saturday morning by a troop of Boy Scouts lined up around an old shanty, armed with hammers and saws. The answer came at precisely 9 o'clock, when on the word "Go" the whole 30 boys swarmed over the rickety structure and tore it limb from limb, to a din of hammers, hammers and whacking flour-bags. The explanation was that the owner had given the building to the Scouts, provided they would remove it. The boys trucked the material to a bush site some distance from town and began the erection of a Scout hut.

Two old ladies while having a cup of tea, began to talk of modern fashions. "What do you think of the hats the ladies wear?" Mrs. Smith said. "They dress awfully nice, they just walk about side of their own heads."

THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURES

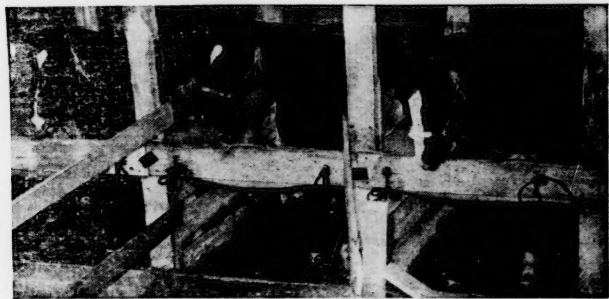

THE DUKE OF WINDSOR MAY RETURN TO ENGLAND FOLLOWING INTERVIEW WITH CHAMBERLAIN

Reports from Paris state that a cordial meeting took place between the Duke of Windsor and Premier Chamberlain, and that the Windsors will return to London in the near future. One London newspaper stated that the former British monarch may spend a few days with Queen Mary at Christmas, and that next year he will go on a special mission to South America. Above are interesting pictures of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, Premier Chamberlain and the Duke's former residence at Belvedere, which he will probably use as his official residence should he return to England.

STRUT YOUR PROUDEST, MR. TURKEY—YOUR DAYS ARE NUMBERED

You are about to see a rehearsal for the forthcoming "murder in cold blood," which, of course, is legal and typical of what goes on in many farmyards shortly before Christmas. Mr. Turkey and Mrs. Turkey must feel rather uncomfortable to see the chopper so close.

CANADIAN BREEDERS IMPORT BELGIAN STALLIONS

This picture shows part of the shipment of eight big Belgian stallions and a mare which arrived in Montreal recently. The stallions were imported by G. Arnold of Granville, Que., and the mare by a breeder at Trois Rivières.

VETERAN RETIRES

The second veteran skipper of the British Columbia Coast Steamships to retire during the current year, Captain Clifford C. Sainy, lately of the Princess Elizabeth on the Vancouver-Victoria night run, will "swallow the anchor" at the end of the month. Captain Sainy has been with the B.C.C.S. for 29 years.

HARRY HEIPEL

Twenty-four-year-old farm hand, who has been charged by R.C.M.P. with the murder of J. A. Kaeser, 65, wealthy Moosomin, Sask., farmer. Kaeser was shot near Sintaluta, presumably by a transient he picked up on the road while motoring from Regina to Moosomin. Heipel was arrested 10 days later at Oregon, after police trailed him for 1,000 miles.

HONORED

H. L. Seamans, Agricultural Scientist, in charge of the Dominion Entomological Laboratory at Lethbridge, Alberta, has been named the winner of the 1938 medal of the Professional Institute of the Civil Service of Canada. This medal is awarded annually for meritorious public service.

DAUGHTER WILL LIKE THESE FOR WEEK-END VISITS

When daughter goes away for the week-end she would like something new and appropriate for youth. Fashion makers offer these suggestions for that week-end visit. Anne Shirley wears a tailored street frock that is appropriate for shopping, teas and a matinee. It is perfect for all daytime occasions in town. The brief bolero jacket is made of black ribbed silk and matches the skirt. The accent for youth for evening is color. Ann Miller has chosen a tulip yellow chignon for her dancing frock. The skirt is full and is corded and shirred to match the little bodice. Annabella discovered something new in line of sports attire when she hit upon that four-piece ensemble. It is grand for outdoor activities in the country and also is ideal for golfing at southern or California clubs. The jacket is of light beige, softly plaided on brown and worn with a warm beige skirt.

DECLARE "WAR"

The Duchess of Atholl, top, has resigned from her seat in the House of Commons to force a bye-election at which she will again be a candidate. Because of her criticism of Premier Chamberlain's policy, her local constituency voted that they would not support her in the next election. The Duke of Atholl, chairman of the local Conservative organization, resigned when the vote was passed.

RACES WITH DEATH

After a long, 4,765-mile flight from Lima, Peru, to Rochester, Minnesota, where he will undergo a life-death operation for an intestinal ailment, Manuel Mujica Carassa, millionaire mine owner, is shown entering the hospital. The long flight took 52 hours.

HITLER TO HEAR HIM

After saying farewell to United States officials, the recalled German Ambassador, Dr. Hans Dieckhoff, smiles for the camera in Washington. The farewell was one of the speediest on record. Dieckhoff's visit to Mr. Cordell Hull lasting two minutes, while the general run of diplomatic visits last from 10 minutes to an hour. Dieckhoff was recalled to report on the "curious attitude" of the United States government in the current anti-Jewish drive in Germany.

WINS A MILLION

Now that Jessie Barker, 22-year-old Louisville, Ky., debutante, has convinced the court she is Jessie Barker, a final legal hurdle, she comes into a $1,500,000 fortune left by her father 21 years ago. Miss Barker said she was happy all over, but not excited.

"A fine bunch of cavaliers you are! He's the only one of you who was man enough to jump in and save me!"

"Why do you keep so many cows in such a small stable?"
"To get them used to it—they've got to make condensed milk."

This Week's Recipe

SERVE CANADIAN FISH FREQUENTLY FOR FLAVOR

Our Canadian fish is the finest in the world. It is healthful, nourishing, and contains plenty of those invisible aids to good health—Vitamins A and D. These are the vitamins that help us resist, they build up resistance, and make crisp, cold days a pleasure. There are so many kinds of Canadian fish packed in cans, quick frozen, that great variety is possible. The way to select the best is to look at the label. The daily fluctuation in price, and to pick brands with well-known Canadian names, such as: Canada, Canadian, Canadiana, etc.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
At all Christian Science churches next Sunday the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "God the Preserver of Man." One of the Scriptural quotations taken in the Lesson-Sermon is Psalm 91:10, "There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is: "Angels, God's thoughts passing to man; spiritual intelligences, pure and perfect, the inspiration of goodness, purity and immortality, counteracting all evil, sensuality, and mortality" (p. 581).

"I like The Tribune best because it is a newspaper," said a subscriber last week when renewing his subscription. And there are many like him—for, after all, that is why most people read a paper. During the past seven years The Tribune has grown and prospered. While some papers have spread many kinds of bait to catch subscribers, without any benefit to the reader, our subscribers have steadily increased—

FLYING SHOT ITEMS

"BLACK CATS" PROVED VERY

FLYING SHOT, Dec. 6.—The Flying Shot Dramatic Club produced a very successful play last Friday evening, "Black Cats," by H. C. Wright. Each member of the cast did his or her part very well, and the play was a fine, an outstanding play.

Katie, the maid, portrayed by Jean Howell, proved very efficient and carried her part extremely well.

Margie Burkett and her husband, Henry Burkett, a young couple, were played by Mr. and Mrs. Royal Hughes. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett were in a trying position, but solved their problems most nobly. Black cats were always crossing their path, and that of a hum who had come to spend the day with him. Black cats were always crossing their path, and that of a hum who had come to spend the day with him.

Henry's college friend, Mort Palmer, enacted by Tom Eskdale, who evidently felt nothing wrong him, considered his cup of life very poor. Burkett, in his dilemma.

Mrs. Crane, the inevitable mother-in-law, was ably played by Edith Tinsington. She didn't forget to lay down the law.

Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Burkett were in a trying position, but solved their problems most nobly. Black cats were always crossing their path, and that of a hum who had come to spend the day with him.

Mrs. Crane, the inevitable mother-in-law, was ably played by Edith Tinsington. She didn't forget to lay down the law.

D. Harrington and Frank Cavett our local fire rangers, are now off to take up easy after having a hectic summer.

Mrs. Dave Harrington spent a few days in Grande Prairie last week, visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Crotty, and shopping for Christmas.

At the annual Social Credit meeting held last Friday in the school house, W. Tamaki was elected president and J. Borman secretary.

Mr. J. Robinson is the latest victim of the "flu." Who will be next?

Mrs. J. Robinson fell from the barn loft while doing chores during her husband's illness and sustained severe injuries.

Frank Cavett and family have moved into their new home recently built by L. Jarvis. It is a very cozy little house and a great addition to the settlement.

MOST OF THE EARTH'S TONGUES ARE SPOKEN IN FOREIGN LEGION

Those who have visited northern Africa and have been in the cantonments of the bizarre French Foreign Legion declare that this colorful military organization, with recruits drawn from every race, is a veritable "Tower of Babel." Nearly every language is spoken.

During the filming of the new Jack H. H. picture, "The Foreign Legion," the double feature program at the Capitol Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 15, 16, 17, Henry Gordon, cast in the role of Captain Nardant, an officer of the Legion, proved to be a "one-man Legion" as far as languages are concerned.

He is, although born in New York, was educated in Neuchatel, Switzerland, speaks French, German, Portuguese and even Chinese and Japanese.

The French Foreign Legion has nothing on Swiss and German units when it comes to diverse "tongues," declared the actor. "My classmates included Germans, Belgians, Austrians, Czechs, Poles, Portuguese and even Chinese and Japanese."

JONES PARTY

America's favorite family gets all shrouded over the Marysville election in "Hot Water." Twentieth Century-Fox comedy featuring the famous Jones family, which with "Trouble in Morocco" will be the double feature program at the Capitol Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 15, 16, 17, Henry Gordon, cast in the role of Captain Nardant, an officer of the Legion, proved to be a "one-man Legion" as far as languages are concerned.

OWNER OF SLAVE LAKE FUR FARM DISCUSSES THE BUSINESS WITH TRIBUNE

N. A. Frood, owner of the Slave Lake Fur Farm, was a visitor in Grande Prairie on Tuesday and part of Wednesday.

In conversation with the Tribune reporter, Mr. Frood stated that the prices for mink were holding up good, but prices for silver foxes were falling, owing to the fact that there are too many pelts of a poor quality.

Mr. Frood added that only large clear silver foxes with long fur bring the money.

Discussing the fur business further, Mr. Frood said that the litters, both of mink and foxes, this year were quite satisfactory.

SEVENTEEN GUESTS ASSIST JIMMY REDMOND CELEBRATE HIS 7TH BIRTHDAY

The home of John Redmond presented an animated scene Monday night, the occasion being little Jimmy's seventh birthday. Seventeen guests were present and helped Jimmy to celebrate his birthday in jolly fashion.

A large birthday cake, bearing seven candles, formed the centre attraction of a pleasing table arrangement, which included every thing to gladden the hearts of the happy party.

Playing games furnished most of the amusement and the little guests left for their respective homes tired but happy, for they had enjoyed the time of their young lives. One of the most pleased was Jimmy himself. He was an admirable host.

Lively Debate ...

C.C.F. should not go too much into details but should stand for progressive ideals.

Les Harris pointed out that the C.C.F. was made up of progressives recruited from the U.F. He was confident that progress was being made, and it was necessary to be optimistic to get anywhere.

Mrs. Miracle of Hythe observed that the principles of the C.C.F. could not be realized right away and there were bound to be hardships until those principles were put into effect.

The introduction of the difficulties in bringing Labor and farmers together.

L. Stickney of Hythe observed that if farmers and Labor are to be amalgamated there are several things that have to be threshed out, and it would be well for the group to address itself to this phase of the organization.

Hon. Hugh Allen reiterated his stand on the C.C.F. provincial platform, contending that it had been hastily thrown together and not properly considered.

Mr. Allen contended that if the service are to be extended as laid out in the platform the money must come from the taxpayers; that before this or any other government can borrow money it must declare itself favorably on the debt question.

A government decides to take over the power, oil and packing plants of the province it can only be done on borrowed money. "Where is the money to come from?"

During the evening there were some sharp clashes between Mr. Allen and Mr. Macklin.

There were about thirty present, some coming as far as forty miles.

Seed Growers ..

stimulate the growing of good seed. With the production of good seed developed, the association has some marketing facilities of their own to ensure the grower fair prices.

The association has now grown into the largest seed out marketing organization in western Canada. Seed is shipped to most provinces of the Dominion and a connection has been made with buyers who secure their seed each year from this association. Fifty thousand bushels of seed inspected and shipped to one firm in Quebec this year.

The association has been managed by careful directors. Robert Cochran has been president and P. U. Clubine treasurer since the association was organized. Martin Anderson has been a director for ten years.

Jas. Somerville, H. W. Fred Cooke, E. C. Stacey, Gordon Sherke and W. E. Greason have all served on the directorate. The seed sales have developed under the direction of W. J. Thomson, who has been secretary and manager for eight years.

The association has up-to-date cleaning equipment and also owns the old mill building in Grande Prairie, which is being fitted for a seed cleaning plant.
